SUMMARY REPORT
FT 950-E

FEBRUARY 1962

FOR RELEASE
May 2, 1962

EXPORT TRADE BY COUNTRY

The Bureau of the Census, Department of Commerce, announced today that the increase in United States exports of domestic and foreign merchandise (unadjusted for seasonal variation) from $1,642.2 million in January to $1,752.5 million in February[1] reflected increases in exports to all areas with the bulk of the increase being accounted for by a higher level of exports to Western Europe. Changes in the dollar values of exports to all areas from January to February are as follows: Western Europe, from $564.4 to $663.4 million; Latin American Republics, from $253.7 to $262.4 million; Canada, from $286.7 to $287.4 million; and "all other countries", from $537.3 to $539.3 million. Exports of Special Category commodities, which are included in these totals, rose from $137.1 to $180.1 million.

The February export total, excluding Special Category commodities was $1,572.4 million as compared to $1,505.1 million in January. Increases were reported in exports to O.E.C.D. countries in Europe, $475.4 to $530.7 million; sterling area countries, from $245.6 to $253.1 million; and Latin American Republics, from $246.8 to $253.5 million. Increases were reported in exports to all continents, except Asia.

[1]See the February 1962 issue of Report No. FT 900-E for seasonally-adjusted figures for total exports, excluding Military Assistance Program--Grant-Aid shipments. Seasonally-adjusted data are not available for total exports including Military Assistance Program--Grant-Aid shipments or by country of destination.

Exports to Europe rose from $502.8 million in January to $574.1 million in February owing chiefly to increases in exports to individual countries of this continent as follows: United Kingdom, from $78.8 to $100.3 million; West Germany, from $74.5 to $93.5 million; Italy, from $59.9 to $71.2 million; France, from $47.4 to $56.0 million; Poland and Danzig, from $7.9 to $14.5 million; and Yugoslavia, from $12.8 to $18.4 million. However, exports to Switzerland, fell from $35.6 to $28.0 million. The slight increase in exports to North America, from $382.7 to $388.3 million was largely accounted for by an increase in exports to Mexico, from $55.8 to $62.0 million. Exports to South America advanced from $160.9 to $164.5 million reflecting small counterbalancing changes in exports to countries of this continent as follows: Chile, from $13.4 to $17.0 million; Colombia, from $17.4 to $20.3 million; and Argentina, from $37.4 to $33.6 million.

Exports to Australia and Oceania climbed from $31.0 to $33.1 million as exports to New Zealand and Western Samoa increased from $1.7 to $5.0 million. Exports to Africa increased slightly from $78.9 to $80.8 million.

During the period, exports to Asia fell from $348.9 to $331.7 million as decreases in exports to India, from $44.9 to $29.8 million and Pakistan, from $20.7 to $12.2 million were partly offset by an increase in exports to Israel, from $11.4 to $19.2 million.

EXPLANATION OF STATISTICS

COVERAGE: Export statistics include government as well as non-government shipments to foreign countries. The export statistics, therefore, include Department of Defense Military Assistance Program--Grant-Aid shipments, for which separate figures are shown in the footnotes of this report. Shipments to United States armed forces and diplomatic missions abroad for their own use are excluded from export statistics. United States trade with Puerto Rico and United States possessions is not included in this report, but the export trade of Puerto Rico with foreign countries is included as part of the United States export trade. Merchandise shipped in-transit through the United States between foreign countries, not entered as imports, is not included in export statistics.

COUNTRY DEFINITION: Although the country of destination is defined as the country of ultimate destination or the country where the goods are to be consumed, or further processed or manufactured, the statistics do not always reflect this definition, as the shipper may not know the ultimate destination of the shipment. In such cases, the shipments are credited to the last country, as known to the exporter at the time c shipment from the United States, to which the goods are to be shipped in their present form. It follows, therefore, that the statistics will tend to be overcounted for shipments to transshipments or merchanting countries and undercounted for other countries. As explained in the footnotes to the table, exports of Special Category commodities are not included in any of the published country totals, for reasons of security.

VALUATION: The valuation definition used in the export statistics is the value at the seaport, border point, or airport of exportation. It is based on the selling price (or cost if not sold) and includes inland freight, insurance, and other charges to the port of exportation. Transportation and other costs beyond the United States port of exportation are excluded. None of the values have been adjusted for changes in price level.

RELIABILITY: The statistics presented in this report are based partly on sample data and therefore are subject to sampling variation that may cause them to differ somewhat from the results which would have been obtained from processing all export documents. For the figures shown in this report, the sampling variability can be ignored since the probable variability due to sampling is either less than $50,000 (the largest variation from rounding of figures) or less than a trivial percentage of the individual totals shown.

In addition to the effects of sampling variation and the difficulties described above under COUNTRY DEFINITION, the data in this report are subject to errors from such sources as the carry-over of data from month to month, errors in reporting or processing, the estimation of shipments valued under $100, and the omission of parcel post shipments valued under $50. Although the effect of such errors on the rounded totals in this report is probably small, the possibility of inaccuracy should be taken into account, particularly in using figures of relatively small magnitude.

Further information regarding coverage, valuation, compilation procedures and precision of export data is contained in the foreword of Reports No. FT 410 and FT 420. For complete statement, see foreword in Foreign Commerce and Navigation of the United States.
